...temporary, transient, translucent...

« E P H E M E R A – Ε Φ Ή Μ Ε Ρ Α »

24 march – 28 october 2019. By Invitation only.

All is about the ephemeral, the volatile, the fleeting – constantly changing and reinventing itself.
Some artists will pop up, others will disappear – some major works will stay throughout the year.

Art will flirt with nature and science.

And merge into completely new shapes of expression.

IT WILL NEVER BE THE SAME.
